ISSUES ON APPEAL

Appellants, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8006, designate the following issues for their appeal of the Enforcement Order and Stipulated Order:

- Issue No. One Did the Bankruptcy Court lack jurisdiction to modify the Confirmation Order and the MRC/Marathon Plan because of the pending appeal of its Confirmation Order?
- Issue No. Two Did the Bankruptcy Court err by holding in the Enforcement Order that the Confirmation Order modified the definition of “Final Order” in the MRC/Marathon Plan to permit the occurrence of the Effective Date, even though no modification to that defined term was ever proposed by the Plan Proponents or approved by the Bankruptcy Court prior to the appeal of the Confirmation Order?
- Issue No. Three Did the Bankruptcy Court err by holding in the Enforcement Order, despite (a) the pendency of an appeal of the confirmation of the MRC/Marathon Plan and (b) the plain language of the MRC/Marathon Plan to the contrary, that the Confirmation Order was a “Final Order” as defined in the MRC/Marathon Plan and, thus, the Effective Date could occur?
- Issue No. Four Did the Bankruptcy court err by relying in the Enforcement Order on extrinsic evidence, including what the Court and the Plan Proponents “thought . . . when they confirmed this plan,” to interpret the MRC/Marathon Plan in a manner contrary to the plain language of the MRC/Marathon Plan.
- Issue No. Five Did the Bankruptcy Court err by entering the Stipulated Order on a contempt motion predicated upon the erroneous and coercive findings and conclusions rendered by the court in its Enforcement Order.
- Issue No. Six Did the Bankruptcy Court lack jurisdiction to enter the Enforcement Order and the Stipulated Order?

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

The Appellants expressly reserve, and do not waive, their right to supplement this Designation and/or to object, or otherwise supplement or move to strike or modify, some or all of the Appellees’ Designations. This filing is made expressly subject to, and without waiver of any and all rights, remedies, challenges and objections.
